

Enlightened Evangelicals

the subversive architects of religious and civil liberties

Two Statements

- “All Men Are Created Equal”
- “Man Has a Civil Right”

Leland's Innovation

- Self-evidenced Providentialism
- Self-described "Bible Baptist"
- Committed 'Jeffersonian'

Consensus: Inalienable Rights

Leland's Innovation Cont.

- A New World Compact of Religious Liberty
- Reprisals Against Those Who Would Restrict the Liberty of Others
- Atheists/Rationalists Included in the Canon of Liberty

Leland's Marketplace

- Jeffersonian Freedoms
- Religious Change Mandatory For Most (Except Presbyterians and Baptists)
- Civil Rights in the New America are necessarily Libertarian in nature and lean to the Progressive
- Note: Spellberg misses civil rights

Conclusion

- A Unique Synthesis of Dynamic Faith and Total Liberty:
The Christocracy
- Hate for the Anti-Christocracy
- Religious Internalisation Must Come Before
Expression...the Orange, VA conversion anomaly
