

TRANSFORMING
THE GLOBAL
YOUTH CULTURE
FOR JESUS

We can only be sure of what we see.

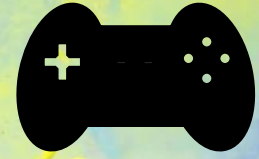

We're here by accident.

Everything is going to be ok.

45% of 18 to 24-year-olds are addicted to social media in their own view

Teen average use: 20 hours per week

Everything is going to be ok.

75% of men and women regularly view porn.
60% view several times a week.

A black and white close-up photograph of a woman's face. She is looking directly at the camera with a thoughtful and slightly melancholic expression. Her right hand is resting against her chin and cheek. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of her skin and the intensity of her gaze. A dark horizontal bar is superimposed across the middle of the image, containing white text.

I can be whoever I want to be.

It doesn't matter what you believe.

A photograph of a crowd of people at a club or party. The scene is dimly lit with a strong red color cast. In the center background, there is a bright, vertical light source, possibly a stage light or a neon sign, which creates a focal point. The people in the foreground are mostly in silhouette, with some faces partially visible. The overall atmosphere is one of a busy, social environment.

Love is just a passing feeling.

To find God you have to be religious.

A person wearing a dark hoodie and pants is leaning against a brick wall at night. The wall is illuminated by a warm, orange light, possibly from a street lamp. The person is looking down and to the left. The background shows a dark building with windows and a red-tiled section of the wall.

We want meaning

We want to belong

I got a hole in my soul growing deeper... The loneliness is haunting me and the weight of the world is getting harder to hold up... Who will fix me now, save me from myself, don't let me drown.

Bring me the horizon

“If I find in myself desires which nothing in this world can satisfy, the only logical explanation is that I was made for another world.”
(C.S.Lewis)

We can only be sure of what we see.

We're here by accident.

Everything is going to be ok.
