

3 Keys to Preaching or Teaching the Bible with Maximum Impact

When we preach or teach the Bible, our goal is to impact lives. However, a lot of biblical ministry seems to have much less impact on our listeners than we long to see. In this seminar we will explore three keys to maximising the impact of your Bible ministry in the lives of your listeners. This practical seminar will help you to preach or teach more effectively, and therefore to increase the eternal impact of your ministry.

Peter Mead is the director of Cor Deo, a ministry training programme in Chippenham, England. He is also part of the leadership team of Trinity Chippenham, a church Peter helped to plant back in 2014. Peter is a lecturer for Union School of Theology. He studied at Multnomah Biblical Seminary before getting his Doctor of Ministry degree under Haddon Robinson at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in the area of expository preaching. Peter is the author of Pleased to Dwell, Lost in Wonder, and Foundations (Christian Focus) as well as Galatians and John's Letters (10Publishing), and the preaching blog: BiblicalPreaching.net. He is married to Melanie and they have six children.
