

Humility, Integrity, Purity: How God uses "HIP" leaders for Global Mission

Why do so few leaders impact deeply, not only for a short season, but also end well? What is the price of leadership scandal? And what is the opportunity for global and eternal glory when Christian leaders know gospel-empowered humility, integrity and purity?

Michael Oh serves as Executive Director and CEO of The Lausanne Movement. He is also founder of Christ Bible Institute Japan which includes a graduate-level theological seminary (Christ Bible Seminary), church planting efforts (All Nations Fellowship), and various outreach ministries including the Heart & Soul Cafe. Michael received his Ph.D. in Educational Leadership and Anthropology at the University of Pennsylvania where he also did his undergraduate degree and a master's degree. His theological training was received at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, and he also completed a master's degree in East Asian Studies at Harvard University. He and his wife, Pearl, have four daughters and a son.

I. Radical Distinctiveness

A. Radical distinctiveness of the church from the world

1. Gospel empowered Biblical living

B. Radical distinctiveness of the church for the world

1. Gospel bearing and demonstrating Biblical mission

C. What does Radical distinctiveness look like?

D. Romans 12

II. Radical Distinctiveness in HUMILITY

A. The cost

B. The opportunity

III. Radical Distinctiveness in INTEGRITY

A. The cost

B. The opportunity

IV. Radical Distinctiveness in PURITY

A. The cost

B. The opportunity

Suggested Readings: Romans 12:1-21