

The Foundations of Evangelical Theology

How is it possible to agree with others on every aspect of a statement of faith, and yet somehow feel like we have a different faith? Could it be that there are some foundational assumptions that bear biblical evaluation? In this talk we will look at the four foundational building blocks of a belief system that will shape everything we build in the superstructure of our faith. Checking the foundations can lead to genuine health and fruitfulness.

Peter Mead is a mentor at Cor Deo, a ministry training programme in Chippenham, England. He is also part of the leadership team of Trinity Chippenham, a young church plant. Peter ministers for Operation Mobilisation as a Bible teacher, and is a Lecturer for Union. Peter studied at Multnomah Biblical Seminary before getting his Doctor of Ministry degree under Haddon Robinson at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, in the area of expository preaching. Peter is the author of Pleased to Dwell (Christian Focus) and Galatians (10Publishing), as well as the preaching blog: BiblicalPreaching.net. He is married to Melanie and they have five children.

Question 1: God?

Question 2: Human?

Question 3: Problem?

Question 4: Solution?
