

Best Practice: Gospel Joy

Andrzej Gorski will give a brief presentation on Gospel Joy, the evangelistic ministry that has hosted almost 100 weekend gospel music workshops all over Poland and performed nearly 500 times across Europe and the USA. They have also established a network of Bible study groups. See <http://www.gospeljoy.pl/welcome>

Andrzej Gorksi founded Gospel Joy Ministry (Pro Novis Foundation) in 2003 and has been the president of the ministry since then. He graduated from law school in 2000 with a specialty in international law and completed 1-year of study at a Bible School in Warsaw. He worked in business as an Area Sales Manager in a multinational company from 2000 to 2003. An innovative leader, Andrzej has introduced many new strategies in Poland, including recording the first ever Gospel music DVD, inviting Kirk Franklin to Warsaw, and building the biggest gospel choir in Poland's history with 1020 voices. Developing Christian leaders through discipleship is another area which is close to his heart. He is deeply involved with Life on Life Missional Discipleship movement in Poland. Andrew and his wife, Ania (born again through the Gospel Joy ministry) have three children, Piotr, Jagoda, and Maria. Since 2011 Andrzej and Ania have planted five house churches, and Andrzej serves as an elder in the 5N (Baptist) Church in Poznan.
