

Best Practice: Uncover: Seeker Bible Studies

How can we help non-Christians who are asking questions to directly engage with the Gospel to find the answers? UCCF created the Uncover seeker bible studies to help students examine the evidence in Luke and John for themselves, and we will consider how to use this resource with seekers we know.

Katia Severinchik is part of a church leadership team in Minsk, Belarus. She has been working for IFES Belarus for the past eight years supervising student leaders, leading Bible studies, and pioneering international student ministry. Her heart is for discipleship and leading students towards maturity in Christ. She has degree in International Relations and Christian Counselling. Katia is in love with the sea and wants to live closer to it.