

The Power of Vision: Planning, Communicating, and Generating Momentum Through Vision

Derek Webster

Foundations

- Leadership is hard.
- Christian leaders lead because of God's call.
- Vision can incorporate Themes but is not the same as a Theme.
- Vision does not guarantee growth.

A workshop wall covered in various tools like hammers, wrenches, and pliers.

Vision is scriptural and practical

Three Components of a Creating Vision

1. Knowing Where You Are

- Context
- Core
- Character
- Chemistry
- Competencies
- Change

Three Components of a Creating Vision

2. Seeing Where God is Calling

- Begin by bringing out the best
- Understand it's a process
- Have perspective

Three Components of a Creating Vision

3. Crafting the Cultural Architecture

- Values

- You are what you celebrate and what you don't celebrate
- Stories are a leadership responsibility.
- Leadership (volunteer or paid)
- Structure & Empowerment

Advice from the Tested

- On Knowing Where You Are
- On Seeing Where God Is Calling
- On Cultural Architecture

On Focus

- It's not about me, but about us.
- It's not about us, but about them.
- It's not about them, but about Him.

Questions and (hopefully) Answers