Using Fascination with Emotional Intelligence as a Doorway to Evangelism

Emotional intelligence is being taught in global corporations, medical and business schools, police departments, military units, sport teams and public schools. In this workshop, we will discuss the neurological basis and benefits of emotional intelligence and show how Christians can use the world's fascination with EI as a doorway to developing deep personal conversations, discussing the superior qualities of God's relational principles, and sharing the gospel of Christ, which is the key to real relationship.

Chip Zimmer is the Vice President of Relational Wisdom 360. He spent 14 years on the staff of Peacemaker Ministries, where he led the international outreach. He is a former diplomat and habroad experience as a mediator and trainer.

1.	There is a global explosion of interest in emotional intelligence
2.	What is emotional intelligence?
3.	The strengths and benefits of emotional intelligence
4.	The weaknesses and deficits of emotional intelligence

5.	Relational wisdom: God-centered, biblically-grounded, gospel driven emotional intelligence
6.	Practical ways to start a conversation about emotional intelligence
7.	How to use emotional intelligence as a springboard to discussing relational wisdom the God who created relationships and the gospel that heals relationships.
8.	To learn more about relational wisdom: (1) Subscribe to RW360's weekly Blog (www.rw360.org/blog); (2) Register for our interactive online course, Discovering Relational Wisdom 2.0 (Academy.rw360.org).